MANAGE has been playing a pioneering role for over a quarter of a century in the growth of various industries by providing top quality talent. I was fortunate to have been educated and groomed in this esteemed institute. With top notch faculty who are masters in their fields and a pedagogy which leaves a lifelong impact, MANAGE has been influencing all stakeholders. I have been recruiting from MANAGE for many years. Students from MANAGE have shown great ability to understand and accept the challenges in the agri-business and rural business space helping them contribute very early on in their careers. With their ground-up thinking they are able to come with appropriate and impactful solutions to the table. In this VUCA world, I have found them to be very adoptable. I am confident that students from MANAGE will continue to not only strengthen the organisations they work for, but also influence and grow the business ecosystem.
