

MANAGE celebrates 37th Foundation Day

Dr Srinivas Vooradi : Pragathi Express Bureau : Hyderabad, June 11: "National Institute of Agricultural Extension Management (MANAGE) has been established as an autonomous organisation under the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Govt. of India to address challenges in agricultural extension through training, research, policy advocacy, consultancy, implementation of Govt. of India Schemes and knowledge management," said Director General of MANAGE Dr P Chandra Shekhara. Presiding over the 37th Foundation Day Celebrations of MANAGE on Tuesday, Dr Chandra Shekhara said that MANAGE would reach out to more than one lakh stakeholders that included agricultural extension officers, scientists, input dealers, agripreneurs, FPO, Agri Startups, private sector, youth, farmer leaders, students etc.

He added that through international initiatives such as ITEC training programs, MANAGE had been consistently working beyond borders covering more than 30 countries. Further, he indicated MANAGE's green initiatives for a sustainable organisation, including solar and hybrid solar units to harness solar and wind energy, "Me and My Plant" program for PGDM-ABM students, bamboo plantation on campus, solid waste management, vermicomposting, and the introduction of an electric buggy which could be followed by other organisations. Participating as the chief guest, Vice Chancellor of Rani Lakshmi Bai Central Agricultural University, Jhansi Dr. A. K. Singh shared his memories of MANAGE since its foundation and highlighted the significant contribution of MANAGE in agricultural extension management which promoted farmers' participation and convergence of stakeholders at the grassroots level in the country. He commended MANAGE for its continuous innovation through its training programs, services and its dedication to the welfare of farmers. As part of the 37th Foundation Day Celebrations, guests distributed nine awards across three categories, Best Post-Graduation Thesis, Best Ph.D. Thesis, and Best Book in Agricultural Extension in the 37th MANAGE Foundation Day Celebrations. More than 100 participants including MANAGE faculty, MANAGE Fellows, Consultants, Staff members and awardees were present. Dr. B. Renuka Rani, Deputy Director (NRM), MANAGE coordinated the program.

TOR
e

MANAGE celebrates 37th Foundation Day

Dr Srinivas Vooradi Hyderabad, June 11: "National Institute of Agricultural Extension Management (MANAGE) has been established as an autonomous organisation under the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Govt. of India to address challenges in agricultural extension through training, research, policy advocacy, consultancy, implementation of Govt. of India Schemes and knowledge management," said Director General of MANAGE Dr P Chandra Shekhara. Presiding over the 37th Foundation Day Celebrations of MANAGE on Tuesday, Dr Chandra Shekhara said that MANAGE would reach out to more than one lakh stakeholders that included agricultural extension officers, scientists, input dealers, agripreneurs, FPO, Agri Startups, private sector, youth, farmer leaders, students etc. He added that through international initiatives such as ITEC training programs, MANAGE had been consistently working beyond borders covering more than 30 countries. Further, he indicated MANAGE's green initiatives for a sustainable organisation, including solar and hybrid solar units to harness solar and wind energy, "Me and My Plant" program for PGDM-ABM students, bamboo plantation on campus, solid waste management, vermicomposting, and the introduction of an electric buggy which could be followed by other organisations. Participating as the chief guest, Vice Chancellor of Rani Lakshmi Bai Central Agricultural University, Jhansi Dr. A. K. Singh shared his memories of MANAGE since its foundation and highlighted the significant contribution of

MANAGE in agricultural extension management which promoted farmers' participation and convergence of stakeholders at the grassroots level in the country. He commended MANAGE for its continuous innovation through its training programs, services and its dedication to the welfare of farmers. Pointing out the innovative programs like SEWA, DEASI, the MANAGE Gyandeeep Krishi lecture series, and international training initiatives, Deputy Secretary (Extension) MoA & FW GOI Anil Jain praised MANAGE for its growing reputation. He pointed out the innovative programmes that had contributed significantly for strengthening the agricultural extension system in India. During the event, faculty members and staff members shared their experiences about MANAGE organization. As part of the 37th Foundation Day Celebrations, guests distributed nine awards across three categories, Best Post-Graduation Thesis, Best Ph.D. Thesis, and Best Book in Agricultural Extension in the 37th MANAGE Foundation Day Celebrations. More than 100 participants including MANAGE faculty, MANAGE Fellows, Consultants, staff and awardees were present. Dr. B. Renuka Rani, Deputy Director (NRM), MANAGE coordinated the program.

...could be ...

... ..

MANAGE celebrates 37th Foundation Day

Hyderabad, June 11 (KCN): “National Institute of Agricultural Extension Management (MANAGE) has been established as an autonomous organisation under the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Govt. of India to address challenges in agricultural extension through training, research, policy advocacy, consultancy, implementation of Govt. of India Schemes and knowledge management,” said Director General of MANAGE Dr P Chandra Shekhara. Presiding over the 37th Foundation Day Celebrations of MANAGE on Tuesday, Dr Chandra Shekhara said that MANAGE would reach out to more than one lakh stakeholders that included agricultural extension officers, scientists, input dealers, agripreneurs, FPO, Agri Startups, private sector, youth, farmer leaders, students etc. He added that through international initiatives such as ITEC training programs, MANAGE had been consistently working beyond borders covering more than 30 countries. Further, he indicated MANAGE's green initiatives for a sustainable organisation, including solar and hybrid solar units to harness solar and wind energy, "Me and My Plant" program for PGDM-ABM students, bamboo plantation on campus, solid waste management, vermicomposting, and the introduction of an electric buggy which could be followed by other organisations. Participating as the chief guest, Vice Chancellor of Rani Lakshmi Bai Central Agricultural University, Jhansi Dr. A. K. Singh shared his memories of MANAGE since its foundation and highlighted the significant contribution of MANAGE in agricultural extension management which promoted farmers' participation and convergence of stakeholders at the grassroot level in the country. He commended MANAGE for its continuous innovation through its training programs, services and its dedication to the welfare of farmers. Pointing out the innovative programs like SEWA, DEASI, the MANAGE Gyandeeep Krishi lecture series, and international training initiatives, Deputy Secretary (Extension) MoA & FW GOI Anil Jain praised MANAGE for its growing reputation. He pointed out the innovative programmes that had contributed significantly for strengthening the agricultural extension system in India. During the event, faculty members and staff members shared their experiences about M A N A G E organization. As part of the 37th Foundation Day Celebrations, guests distributed nine awards across three categories, Best Post-Graduation Thesis, Best Ph.D. Thesis, and Best Book in Agricultural Extension in the 37th MANAGE Foundation Day Celebrations. More than 100 participants including MANAGE faculty, MANAGE Fellows, Consultants, Staff members and awardees were present. Dr. B. Renuka Rani, Deputy Director (NRM), MANAGE coordinated the program.

Dr. Srinivas Voooradi "Bharat Samachar" Hyderabad, June 11: "National Institute of Agricultural Extension Management (MANAGE) has been established as an autonomous organisation under the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Govt. of India to address challenges in agricultural extension through training, research, policy advocacy, consultancy, implementation of Govt. of India Schemes and knowledge management," said Director General of MANAGE Dr. P. Chandrashekhara. Presiding over the 37th Foundation Day Celebrations of MANAGE on Tuesday, Dr. Chandrashekhara said that MANAGE would reach out to more than one lakh stakeholders that included agricultural extension officers, scientists, input dealers, agripreneurs, FPO, Agri Startups, private sector, youth, farmer leaders, students etc. He added that through international initiatives such as ITEC training programs, MANAGE had been consistently working beyond borders covering more than 30 countries. Further, he indicated MANAGE's

MANAGE celebrates 37th Foundation Day

green initiatives for a sustainable organisation, including solar and hybrid solar units to harness solar and wind energy, "Me and My Plant" program for PGDM-ABM students, bamboo plantation on campus, solid waste management, vermicomposting, and the introduction of an electric buggy which could be followed by other organisations. "Participating as the chief guest, Vice Chancellor of Rani Lakshmi Bai Central Agricultural University, Jhansi Dr. A. K. Singh shared his memories of MANAGE since its foundation and highlighted the significant contribution of MANAGE in agricultural extension management which promoted farmers' participation and convergence of stakeholders at the grassroot level in the country. He commended MANAGE for its continuous innovation through its training programs, services and its dedication to the welfare of farmers. "Pointing out the innovative programs like SEWA, DEASI, the MANAGE Gyandeep Krishi lecture series, and international training initiatives, Deputy Secretary (Extension) MoA & FW GOI Anil Jain praised MANAGE for its growing reputation. He pointed out the innovative programmes that had contributed significantly for strengthening the agricultural extension system in India. During the event, faculty members and staff members shared their experiences about MANAGE organization. As part of the 37th Foundation Day Celebrations, guests distributed nine awards across three categories, Best Post-Graduation Thesis, Best Ph.D. Thesis, and Best Book in Agricultural Extension in the 37th MANAGE Foundation Day Celebrations. More than 100 participants including MANAGE faculty, MANAGE Fellows, Consultants, staff and awardees were present. Dr. B. Renuka Rani, Deputy Director (NRM), MANAGE coordinated the program."

green initiatives for a sustainable organisation, including solar and hybrid solar units to harness solar and wind energy, "Me and My Plant" program for PGDM-ABM students, bamboo plantation on campus, solid waste management, vermicomposting, and the introduction of an electric buggy which could be followed by other organisations. "Participating as the chief guest, Vice Chancellor of Rani Lakshmi Bai Central Agricultural University, Jhansi Dr. A. K. Singh shared his memories of MANAGE since its foundation and highlighted the significant contribution of MANAGE in agricultural extension management which promoted farmers' participation and convergence of stakeholders at the grassroot level in the country. He commended MANAGE for its continuous innovation through its training programs, services and its dedication to the welfare of farmers. "Pointing out the innovative programs like SEWA, DEASI, the MANAGE Gyandeep Krishi lecture series, and international training initiatives, Deputy Secretary (Extension) MoA & FW GOI Anil Jain praised MANAGE for its growing reputation. He pointed out the innovative programmes that had contributed significantly for strengthening the agricultural extension system in India. During the event, faculty members and staff members shared their experiences about MANAGE organization. As part of the 37th Foundation Day Celebrations, guests distributed nine awards across three categories, Best Post-Graduation Thesis, Best Ph.D. Thesis, and Best Book in Agricultural Extension in the 37th MANAGE Foundation Day Celebrations. More than 100 participants including MANAGE faculty, MANAGE Fellows, Consultants, staff and awardees were present. Dr. B. Renuka Rani, Deputy Director (NRM), MANAGE coordinated the program."

National Day Celebrations to be Held

हिन्दी मिलाप

मैनेज ने मनाया 37वाँ स्थापना दिवस

हैदराबाद, 11 जून-(मिलाप ब्यूरो) राष्ट्रीय कृषि विस्तार प्रबंधन संस्थान (मैनेज) द्वारा आज अपना 37वाँ स्थापना दिवस मनाया गया। अवसर पर सर्वश्रेष्ठ शोध विद्वानों और लेखकों को मैनेज कृषि विस्तार पुरस्कार से सम्मानित किया गया। कार्यक्रम के मुख्य अतिथि रानी लक्ष्मीबाई केंद्रीय कृषि विश्वविद्यालय, झांसी के कुलपति डॉ. ए.के. सिंह थे। अवसर पर कृषि एवं किसान कल्याण मंत्रालय के उप सचिव (विस्तार) अनिल जैन, मैनेज महानिदेशक डॉ. पी. चंद्रशेखर व अन्य गणमान्य उपस्थित थे।

डॉ. ए.के. सिंह ने समारोह को संबोधित करते हुए कृषि विस्तार प्रबंधन में मैनेज के महत्वपूर्ण योगदान पर प्रकाश डाला, जिसने देश में जमीनी स्तर पर किसानों की भागीदारी और हितधारकों के अभिसरण को बढ़ावा देने में महत्वपूर्ण भूमिका का निर्वाह किया है। अवसर पर उन्होंने प्रशिक्षण कार्यक्रमों, सेवाओं और किसानों के कल्याण के प्रति समर्पण के माध्यम से निरंतर नवाचार के लिए प्रतिबद्ध को राष्ट्रीय कृषि विस्तार प्रबंधन संस्थान की गतिविधियों तथा उपलब्धियों की सराहना भी की। डॉ. पी. चंद्रशेखर ने डॉ.एईएसआई, एसटीआरआई, एसीएंडएवीसी योजनाओं सहित जय-

जवान किसान प्रशिक्षण कार्यक्रम जैसे अभिनव कार्यक्रमों के माध्यम से संस्थान को भूमिका को रेखांकित किया। उन्होंने कहा कि आईटेक प्रशिक्षण कार्यक्रमों जैसी अंतर्राष्ट्रीय पहलों के माध्यम से मैनेज लगातार

30 से अधिक देशों को कवर करते हुए सोमाओं से परे काम करता है। इसके अलावा उन्होंने सौर और पवन ऊर्जा का दोहन करने के लिए सौर-हाइब्रिड सौर इकाइयों, पीजोडीएम-एवीएम छात्रों के लिए 'मी एंड माई

प्लान्ट' कार्यक्रम, परिसर में बांस रोपण, टोस अपशिष्ट प्रबंधन, वर्मीकंपोस्टिंग और इलेक्ट्रिक बग्गी की शुरुआत सहित एक स्थायी संगठन के रूप में मैनेज की अनुकरणीय पहलों का उल्लेख किया।

अवसर पर जानकारी देते हुए बताया गया कि मैनेज को स्थापना भारत सरकार के कृषि और किसान कल्याण मंत्रालय के तहत एक स्वायत्त संगठन के रूप में की गई। इसका उद्देश्य प्रशिक्षण, अनुसंधान, नीति विकास, परामर्श, भारत सरकार की योजनाओं के कार्यान्वयन और ज्ञान प्रबंधन के माध्यम से कृषि विस्तार में नुनितियों का समाधान करना है। यह संस्थान एक लाख से अधिक हितधारकों तक अपनी पहुँच स्थापित करता है, जिसमें कृषि विस्तार अधिकारी, वैज्ञानिक, इनपुट डीलर, कृषि उद्यमी, एहपीओ, कृषि स्टार्टअप, निजी क्षेत्र, युवा, किसान नेता तथा छात्र आदि शामिल हैं।

मैनेज स्थापना दिवस समारोह के दौरान तीन श्रेणियों में नौ मैनेज कृषि विस्तार पुरस्कार प्रदान किए गए। इनमें सर्वश्रेष्ठ स्नातकोत्तर थीसिस, सर्वश्रेष्ठ पीएचडी थीसिस और संबंधित क्षेत्र में सर्वश्रेष्ठ पुस्तक श्रेणी शामिल थी। अवसर पर मैनेज के संकाय सदस्यों और कर्मचारियों भी संस्थान से जुड़े अपने अनुभव और विचार साझा किए। समारोह में सौ से अधिक प्रतिभागियों ने भाग लिया। कार्यक्रम का संचालन मैनेज की उप निदेशक (एनआरएम) डॉ. बी. रेणुका रानी ने किया।

Hindi Milap Edition

Jun 12, 2024 Page No. 14

Powered by: erelego.com