Information sought

Recently I heard that two retired employees MANAGE, namely Dr. B.K. Paty Ex Director and Dr. TK Chakravarty, Ex-Director went to CAT, Hyderabad and later Hon’ble High Court of Telangana against MANAGE located at Rajendranagar, Hyderabad-500030 Rangareddy District regarding counting of previous services and getting of retirement benefits and pension.

In this regard I submit RTA application for seeking information of the following:

1. Above two ex-employees of MANAGE went to CAT and they lose the case at CAT and again they went to High Court of AP&Telangana and they win the cases and they are yet to be received the retirement benefits.
2. Whether MANAGE has applied or not the Hon’ble Supreme court of India for Higher legal opinion and final judgement.
3. If MANAGE not proceed to The Hon’ble Supreme Court of India, Please advise and instruct to MANAGE competent authorities for best legal advice as per Law. I request you to instruct the authorities for implementing the orders on hearing from the Supreme Court of India only.
4. To my knowledge both the officers are not eligible for pension and other retirement benefits as per the Government of India rules.

Reply

RTI applicant is not seeking any information and advising MANAGE to go Supreme Court of India for higher legal opinion, hence rejected.
